

Reporting Incidents Involving Minors on Campus

Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey

Anyone who makes a report in good faith receives legal protection from retaliation

Helpful Definitions

Abuse: The physical, sexual or emotional harm or risk of harm to a child under the age of 18 caused by a parent or other person who acts as a caregiver for the child.

Neglect: When a parent or caregiver fails to provide proper supervision for a child or adequate food, clothing, shelter, education or medical care although financially able or assisted to do so.

Emergency: Any situation that requires immediate assistance from police, the fire department or an ambulance (e.g. medical emergencies, crimes in progress). If you are ever in doubt, call the Rutgers Police Department. It is better to be safe and let the dispatcher determine if you need emergency assistance.

MAKE A REPORT

If you know or suspect that a minor is suffering abuse or neglect.

You do not need to investigate or be certain – simply report it.

Regardless of who the suspected culprit may be.

Regardless of where the abuse or neglect may be occurring (in the home, at Rutgers, or elsewhere).

IN CASE OF EMERGENCY

Who Should Make a Report

ALL Rutgers University employees, volunteers, and service providers are required to report suspected child abuse or neglect of minors.

What Details To Report

Include as many details as you can:

- Identification of victim and perpetrator
- Location
- Nature of incident
- How the reporting party became aware of the incident
- Witnesses (if applicable)
- Other relevant information

What Happens After a Report is Made

If the report is received by the Rutgers Police Department:

- All incidents will be reported to the Division of Child Protection and Permanency.
- Depending on the nature of the report, concurrent notification may be made to the Prosecutor's Office and/or other agencies.
- Where appropriate, the Rutgers Police Department will investigate the incident and follow up with the reporting party.
- Matters outside of the jurisdiction of the RUPD will be referred to the appropriate local police agency for resolution.

Non-emergency reports can also be made through the Rutgers Compliance Hotline by calling 1-800-215-9664 or submitting an online report at www.Rutgers-Compliance-Hotline.com. Please do not use this method to report emergency situations.

Reports received through the hotline or the online reporting system will be handled in the following manner:

- The report is sent to the Office of Enterprise Risk Management, Ethics, and Compliance for review within 24 hours.
- When suspected abuse or neglect of a minor is reported, based on the nature of the report, the matter is immediately forwarded to one or more departments (i.e. the Rutgers Police or the University's Title IX Coordinator AND the Rutgers Police.)
